August 2015

Greetings & Welcome to August!

As the summer heat and season comes to a close in the coming months and we begin the transition into a new season, I write to each and every one of you with much excitement! Excitement for the cooler temperatures and return of regular routines in our academic and professional schedules, but most importantly the New York City debut and the presentation of Spoliarium, The Opera taking place this fall at the prestigious BMCC Tribeca Performing Arts Center! In collaboration with the Foundation for Filipino Artists, Inc. (FFAI) and Pierre Le Saint Events (PLS), we are pleased to announce the generous support and acceptance of Philippine Ambassador to the United States, His Excellency Jose L. Cuisia, Jr. and his wife Madame Victoria as this groundbreaking event's honorary co-chairs.

Furthermore, we expect all audiences to be in awe by the participation of world renowned Philippine opera singer, Fides Cuyugan-Asensio as well as by the musical production of the one and only Mr. Ryan Cayabyab. Directed by the internationally recognized director and playwright, Dr. Anton Juan of the University of Notre Dame, and top billed by several accomplished Asian artists this opera brings forth a new take on the underlying themes pertaining to the quest for Philippine sovereignty at the close of the 19th century.

Ticket prices for this historical event begin at $20 (Thursday, October 1 only), with mezzanine level seats ranging from $48 - $58, and orchestra seating starting at $75 for October 2 and 3. Premium seating is also available for our exclusive sponsors and donors.

To learn more on how you can contribute to the success of Spoliarium, please visit our website at www.maffaainc.org or call 1-443-240-8734 today. Electronic payments will be processed online and those electing to submit payments via check should make them payable to MAFFAA with the notation "Spoliarium" in the memo line.

Thank you and I do hope to see you there!

Respectfully,
Patrick Realiza

Juan Luna, a distinguished world class Filipino painter brought honors to the Filipino people through his acclaimed international masterpieces. Among his most notable achievements was the acquisition of the gold medal in the Exposición de Bellas Artes (Madrid Art Exposition) for his painting, the Spoliarium in 1884. This oil-on-canvas painting features a glimpse of Roman history centered on the bloody carnage in the wake of the gladiatorial matches and is currently the largest painting in the Philippines.

Spoliarium, The Opera is based on the true story of Mr. Luna's ill-fated marriage and his famous painting. Dubbed as the first Filipino opera written in the English language, Spoliarium is a three-act neo-romantic opera that is guaranteed to give all audiences a unique musical experience.

Originally conceived by Fides Cuyugan-Asensio, one of the Philippines' foremost opera singers and with music by Ryan Cayabyab, the opera will transport audiences back to Paris, France to the days preceding the Philippine Revolution, where figures such as José Rizal, Trinidad Pardo de Tavera, Félix Hidalgo, and Antonio and Juan Luna were synonymous with the movement for Philippine sovereignty.
