December 2017

Message from Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to December! Hoping you all had a nice and peaceful Thanksgiving holiday last week! More importantly, on behalf of our Executive Board of Directors, I would like to extend our sincere gratitude for your attendance and support at our inaugural Ilustrado Ball at the start of November in Silver Spring.

This ball was based on the Spanish colonial period in the Philippines where the "Ilustrado" class sought to in support of the liberal Spanish and European nationalistic ideals that eventually set forth democracy in the country.

Nearly two centuries later, MAFFAA marked this momentous time by aiding to those affected by the conflict in Marawi City in the Southern Philippines. This event was presented in collaboration with the Philippine Humanitarian Coalition (PHC).

Be sure to read the full recap in this edition of the MAFFAA Journal!

Respectfully,
Patrick Realiza
Co-Executive Director, Mid Atlantic Foundation for Asian Artists, Inc.

RECAP OF MAFFAA ILUSTRADO BALL
Saturday, November 4, 2017 | Sheraton Hotel
Silver Spring, Maryland

The Mid-Atlantic Foundation for Asian Artists (MAFFAA), a non-profit organization, wanted to give back to the community. The historic inaugural Ilustrado Ball celebration was very well-attended. MAFFAA co-founder Dr. Lorna Imperial Seidel collaborated with the Philippine Humanitarian Coalition (PHC) to raise funds for the displaced victims of the Marawi conflict in the Philippines. At the same time, MAFFAA wanted to celebrate the successes of the initial series of the Le Opera Noli Me Tangere US Tour.

Thus, The Ilustrado Ball was conceptualized. One of the highlights of the evening was the revelation of Mr. Ilustrado. Flying trans-Pacific and across the United States, Mr. Ilustrado was Ramon Sumibcay himself.

Other featured performers that evening were MAFFAA's opera singers.

Juditha Seghers, a Soprano, impressed and amazed the audience with her unique vocal styling.

John Clayton, Tenor, is described as dynamic singer who performs gallantly with Tagalog songs.

Allan Palacios Chan, a Philippine-born American Tenor brought musicality and attractive flexible "leggiero" sound. Allan is well- accomplished and well-educated with his Doctorate in Musical Arts. Recently, he was a scholar fellow at the Berlin Opera Academy in Berlin, Germany.

MAFFAA recognized outstanding citizens and organizations, Modern Day Ilustrados, for their altruistic and philanthropic activities throughout the United States.

The three individual awardees were: Eric Lachica, Anjana Bordoloi and Ramon Calalang.

The two organizational awardees for their sustained volunteerism were:

Bicol Association of Metropolitan DC (BAMDC)

St. Jude Filipino Community Ministry of Rockville, Maryland

Dr. Seidel officially announced Le Opera Noli Me Tangere (LONMT) Hawaii scheduled to take place on June 8 and 10, 2018 as the triumvirate of MAFFAA, KGB Productions, and Island Living Productions and Entertainment.

MAFFAA received special recognition for preservation and encouragement of heritage, from Maryland State Delegate Aruna Miller (Montgomery County, District 15) following the conclusion of the inaugural Ilustrado Ball.
